

Wraparound Oregon Presents

Title: Family Driven Care – Working with Families Involved in Mandated Services

Date: November 5, 2009

Time: 9:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. *Registration begins at 8:00 a.m.

Location: East Police Precinct
737 SE 106th Ave, Portland

About the Trainer:

Ally Linfoot is the Director of Family Involvement at Albertina Kerr Centers, a children's mental health provider in Multnomah County. In her role, Ally has served as an advocate for families being served by Kerr, as well as coach and mentor for staff who work with families in Intensive Community-base Treatment Services (ICTS).

Learning Objectives:

As a result of this training, participants will:

- Explore the concept of "meeting families where they're at"
- Recognize & understand challenges that families face and the impact on their lives.
- Understand how to distinguish between what often appears to be family resistance or lack of ability and cumulative stress.
- Discover how to connect Family Driven Care principles with strategies and achieve outcomes that lead to family success.

Targeted Audience:

This training is by invitation only and is intended specifically for facilitators, care coordinators, and family partners who have responsibility for facilitating wraparound/collaborative child and family teams.

This training is FREE of charge.

3.75 CEU credits are available for this training. Please indicate that you would like to receive CEU's upon registration.

To register, please use our web-based registration process:

<http://www.ccf.pdx.edu/forms/index.php?formTitle=form9002>

*If you require special accommodations for language support or translators, please contact Karen Harrington at karenh@pdx.edu.

For more information or for those without internet access, please contact Wraparound Registration at PSU's Center for the Improvement of Child & Family Services at (503)725-9864.

Co Sponsored by:

